I sent you an email two weeks ago stating that we had rescheduled several times, per your request, and that I was noticing the deposition for March 1. You never responded with a new date, or provided a list of available dates. I attached the notice to the email and mailed it to your office.

The corresponding email thread is below.

Mr. Gopstein,

The noticed deposition in this matter was set to begin at 10:00 am, as indicated on the Notice emailed to you and mailed to your office.

Do you and your client intend to appear?

Danielle
